

Heidi Condon

Heidi has been involved with theatre and music from the ripe old age of eight. Since moving from New England in 2004, she has written, produced, directed, and performed in various shows throughout Florida. Most notably, she was the Assistant Entertainment Director and actor at the Florida Renaissance Festival for fourteen years.

She has directed several shows at ACT and introduced their first musical, The Fantasticks, in 2018. Since then she has directed You're a Good Man Charlie Brown in 2019 and 2020's sold out performances of Cabaret. She works with the Martin County Arts Council, writing, producing, and directing, The Marties, recognizing outstanding artists from the Treasure Coast area. Theatre is a passion for Heidi and ACT has a devoted supporter for continuing their fine work.
